ITALIANS CELEBRATE.

Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the Birth of United Italy.

THE PREMIER AND THE POPE.

Crispien Pays His Respects to the Sovereign Pontiff and Defines His Position—Oration at the Unveiling of the Garibaldi Monument.

ROME, Sept. 21.—The fetes celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the entry of the Italian army into Rome, which began on the 15th inst., culminated yesterday in the ceremony of the unveiling of the monument of General Garibaldi on the Janiculum hill, in the presence of King Humbert and the royal family, the court ministers and deputations of veterans who served under Garibaldi. The 50,000 people who witnessed the ceremony displayed the utmost enthusiasm. The decorations of public and private buildings were of the most imposing and liberal character. Every mention of the names of Garibaldi, Italy and King Humbert was greeted with loud cheers. The English and American embassies had their flags hoisted.

The statue of Garibaldi by the sculptor Gallelli. It is an equestrian bronze, weighing fifteen tons. It has been erected in the grounds of the Villa Corsini upon an immense granite base, on the four sides of which are shown four allegorical groups. The side facing Rome represents the defense of Rome against the French in 1848. The opposite shows the Garibaldians taking Calata Fiuma. The third and fourth sides exhibit groups symbolical of America and Europe.

Premier Crispien delivered an oration, in which he eulogized Garibaldi without saying a word that might give offense to either France or the Vatican.

Signor Crispien dilated upon the inherent antagonism of statesmanship and religion, arguing that those claiming the restoration of the temporal power are actuated by far more human motives than that of safeguarding the prestige of the church. The struggles incidental to political government, he said, would still all sentiment of veneration for Christ's vicar. Italy has given an example for other countries in renouncing ecclesiastical attributes and according the greatest respect to the liberty of the church.

In the guaranty of spiritual autonomy, he said, the pope possessed an unassailable fortress which might well be envied by all the powers of the world, and even by Protestants. The pope is now subject only to God. As a temporal prince his authority would be diminished, for he would then only be the equal of other princes, who would league themselves against him. After 1870 Pope Pius IX could contend with Bismarck. Catholics preaching rebellion should know that they are only assisting anarchists, who deny both God and the king.

Signor Crispien concluded by saying: "The fetes are not directed against the pope. Do not let us mar the solemnity of this ceremony, in which the whole of Italy is united, but remember that the public reminds us of our duty to defend a patriotic inheritance won through long years of sacrifice."

The procession of Garibaldian veterans to the Villa Corsini was a striking and impressive spectacle, with its band of music and its banners. The old soldiers in red shirts were loudly cheered as they marched through the streets. According to some estimates 100,000 people congregated upon the Janiculum hill. The royal carriage moved through the crowd with the greatest difficulty, the populace pressing about it to seize the hands of King Humbert and Queen Marguerite.

A tremendous shout went up as the roll was withdrawn from the statue. Garibaldians stormed and climbed the monument to deposit upon it flags and crowns of flowers. The scene was one of indescribable emotion.

King Humbert has conferred the order of the annunciation upon and sent a flattering letter to General Crispien, the sole surviving member of the ministry of 1870. Dispatches from the provinces report that the day has been celebrated everywhere with the greatest enthusiasm.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the mayor of the city unveiled the memorial column of Porta Pia, which is erected upon the exact spot at which the Italian troops effected a breach in the city walls when they occupied the city in 1870 and overthrew the temporal power of the pope. The veterans of 1870 moved to the site of the column in a splendid procession. They deposited hundreds of wreaths at its base and sang patriotic songs in grand chorus.

Celebrated in Washington.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The Italians in this city yesterday enthusiastically celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of the unification of Italy. The festivities were under the direction of the local Italian beneficial and fraternal organizations. There was a street parade in the morning, followed by a reception to Baron Fava, the Italian ambassador. Elaborate arrangements were made for the grand banquet in the evening. Many hundreds of Italians were in line of parade, and they were reviewed by Baron Fava and other prominent representatives of Italy.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Weekly Reports of the Two Leading Commercial Agencies.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says: General trade throughout the United States shows further improvement in this the second week of September, more particularly in manufacturing and commercial lines at the east and south. From the central western states, notably Iowa, there are advices that purchases of seasonable goods have been checked this week because of high temperature throughout the region specified, but in the south Atlantic, gulf and southwestern states, and on the Pacific coast, general trade has been increasing in volume, with improving mercantile collections as a rule, and goods selling with less effect in many instances.

In support of favorable influencing conditions are this week's heavily increased total of bank clearings, the larger week's aggregate of wheat exports within three months, the heaviest week's shipment of Indian corn in seventeen months, the maintenance of full proportions of the extraordinary heavy demand for iron and steel, and the significant hardening of leading money markets, accompanied by reports of increasing mercantile discounts.

R. G. Dunn & Co.'s review says: In spite of gold exports wheat advanced for some days, in all nearly two cents, mainly because a single speculator bought, but on Friday fell about one cent. Corn rose and fell in sympathy with wheat, with as little reason.

Leather has further advanced in some qualities, though the rise of 51 per cent. for the first half of the year on sixteen qualities has been followed by only 2 per cent. rise since July 1, and this week a break has occurred of two cents in Union crop. Hides are 6 per cent. lower than in July.

The cotton mills which laid in stocks of cotton below six cents are enriched by the advance in material, and enabled to make frequent advances in goods, which are sustained. The present demand is dull. The woolen manufacture is doing well in dress goods and hosiery, but the demand for men's woolsens is much restricted, and a few mills have closed.

Failures for the week were 213 in the United States, against 210 last year, and 22 in Canada, against 18 last year.

The party had gone in the direction of Paradise Tunnel. Death in the Cane.

CAMILLA, Ga., Sept. 21.—Last week the negroes in the vicinity of Oak Grove, in this county, a few miles west of this place, held a picnic. Since that day about thirty of those who are of the picnic dinner have been sick. Three of them have died and several others will probably die. The cause of the trouble has not yet been definitely ascertained. Most of the negroes believe that a certain cake caused the sickness. Two of those who have died were of the family who took the cake to the picnic.

The Schooner Barstegui Disaster.

HAVANA, Sept. 21.—Fishermen caught a shark yesterday near the place in the harbor where the schooner Barstegui was sunk Wednesday night. The creature, which was ten feet long, was taken ashore and opened, and inside of it were found two human legs and other bones, undoubtedly remains of some of the crew of the lost ship. NEWS FROM THE ORIENT.

The Cholera Is Reported to be on the Increase.

CAPTURED BY JAPANESE TROOPS.

Hundreds of Lives Lost in an Engagement in Which the Old Capital of Formosa and an Adjacent Fortified Town Is Taken from the Chinese.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—The steamer Gardie, which has just arrived from Hong Kong and Yokohama, did not stop at Honolulu. She brought eleven cabin passengers from Higo, the worst infested cholera district in the Orient. No sickness was reported on the trip across and no alarm was felt by the ship's officers. Since last October there has been an increase of the cholera plague in the Oriental ports. During the two weeks preceding the sailing of the ship there had been six deaths from cholera in Hong Kong, 31 deaths out of 34 cases at Nagasaki, 253 deaths out of 223 cases at Higo, and 27 cases with 19 deaths at Yokohama.

On its return by members of the board of health the passengers and mails were landed, and the steamer went back to quarantine. The postmaster has received a dispatch from Washington directing him to fumigate all mails received from infected ports. The chief of police has ordered a house to house canvass for the purpose of compelling all citizens to put their houses in the best sanitary condition possible.

Under date of Tokyo, Sept. 7, the following is reported: Taiwan Jui, the old capital of Formosa, and Chang Hwa, an adjacent fortified town, were captured by a body of 2,000 Japanese on Aug. 26, after a short contest in which twenty-four of the assailants were killed or wounded. Of the Chinese garrisons, numbering 10,000, 650 were killed or wounded, and the remainder dispersed in various directions. The conquering army will not proceed further southward until after the arrival of fresh troops from Manchuria and Japan. By the middle of September the entire force will exceed 50,000 fighting men.

Count Matsugata, minister of finance, has resigned from the Japanese cabinet because of differences with Marquis Ito, prime minister. Viscount Watanabe, who retired from the treasury last March to make room for Matsugata, now resumes his former position.

The report recently sent out from Washington asserting that toward the close of the war between China and Japan a serious difficulty threatened the friendly relations of Japan and the United States, and that actual hostilities would have broken out but for the sudden announcement of an Asiatic armistice, is declared by the highest authorities of Tokyo to be entirely without foundation.

The investigation of the Kucheng massacre proceeds slowly. The Chinese officials seeking by every means to interpose delays and plainly indicating their sense of superiority in rank and position to the consular agents charged with the duty of guarding foreign interests. A few executions of real or alleged criminals may probably be ordered and pledges of watchfulness and care will be given to any required extent by the rulers at Peking. But the mass of the people are now thoroughly persuaded that the highest provincial authorities approve the persecution of strangers and believe that they will get shielded from punishment no matter what excesses they may be guilty of.

Fifty thousand Mohammedans are in active rebellion in the northwest of China. They are fighting with arms said to be supplied by Russian sympathizers, and their avowed purpose is to set up an independent government in territory taken from Kansu Aili and Thibet. The authorities at Peking are dispatching all the troops that can be collected to the scene.

Mexico Wants No Irish Colonists.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Senator Romero, the Mexican minister, has received a number of letters from Irishmen in this country asking information as to what special inducements the Mexican government would offer to the immigration of Irishmen. The letters being induced by newspaper publications that Mexico, besides giving land, would pay all expenses of colonists travelling from Ireland to Mexico. Senator Romero has received an official report from which it appears that the publication was ungrounded.

READING, Pa., Sept. 21.—J. Henry Salade, aged 19 years, son of William H. Salade, deputy county treasurer, died in the Reading hospital, the result of having both legs cut off on the railroad in returning from the Kutztown fair. The young man stepped from the train at a way station, and in endeavoring to regain the car steps was thrown under the wheels, which passed over his lower limbs. He was a student at the Keystone state normal school.

One Hundred and Five in the Shade.

OMAHA, Sept. 21.—Heavy rains are now falling in several parts of Nebraska, after five of the hottest days in the state's history for some time. The mercury reached 105 in the shade in many parts of the state and the heat was so oppressive that schools were dismissed.

gaged his attention. He will not go to the Democratic convention at Syracuse on Monday.

The Tammany leader seems to have aged since he went abroad. His hair and close cut beard, slightly pointed, are grayer. Mr. Croker said he had come from the other side to attend to some personal matters and to vote. He would return to England in time to eat Christmas dinner with his family. He did not propose to take any part in the political campaign, and he would not discuss politics in any phase.

BLUE AND GRAY DAY.

Old Veterans Are the Guests of the Atlanta Exposition Today.

ATLANTA, Sept. 21.—Today is "Blue and Gray" day at the Cotton States and International exposition. All morning the vanguard of the Grand Army posts, fresh from the meeting at Louisville, and the dedicatory exercises at Chickamauga, have been pouring in. The visitors will be entertained by committees from the Confederate Veterans' association, headed by General Clement A. Evans, commander, and during their stay in the city they will be guests of the exposition.

Governor Morton of New York, and Governor McKinley will take part in the exercises, and among other distinguished guests are Governors Holcomb of Nebraska, Altgeld of Illinois, McIntyre of Colorado, Woodbury of Vermont, Werts of New Jersey and Greenhalgh of Massachusetts. Features of the day's program will be addresses by General James Longstreet, representing the Grand Army of the Republic in the south; General John B. Gordon, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, and General Walker, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R. An address of welcome will be delivered by Captain E. P. Howell for the exposition. Hon. W. E. Ellis for the Confederate veterans, and General J. R. Lewis for the southern branch of the G. A. R.

In addition to the reunion feature, today is Kansas City day, and a large party of Missourians are here.

Paymaster Delle Buried.

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 21.—The body of Allan Delle, the Pennsylvania railroad paymaster, which was taken from the Raritan canal not far from here on Thursday, was buried yesterday. The Pennsylvania company defrayed the expenses of the funeral, as the mother of the unfortunate man is at present in a critical state of health, and it was feared that the news of her son's death would prove a dangerous shock to her. A coroner's jury was empanelled, which viewed the body shortly before burial. County Physician Cantwell certified his belief that the man had been dead before his body reached the canal. Evidences of foul play are pronounced.

Supposed Filibusters Captured.

KEY WEST, Fla., Sept. 21.—The revenue cutter McRae, under instructions from Deputy Collector P. T. Knight, while cruising from Bahia Honda to Key West, came across the schooner Anconito with seven Cubans and two Americans on board. The schooner attempted to evade the cutter's launch, but, running ashore on a sand bar, was easily captured. This is no doubt a portion of the expedition which was to join those on the schooner Lark, captured last Tuesday at Big Pine Key by the cutter Winona, and who were, after meeting them, to proceed in a body to Cuba.

Found Dead on the Tracks.

TRENTON, Sept. 21.—A tragedy last night found the dead body of a young man on the Pennsylvania railroad tracks at the coal depot here. On his person was a letter signed by John C. Gibbons, 215 Gibson street, Trenton, Pa., addressed to Thomas McMan or McManus, Albany Hotel, Main street, Buffalo. The dead man was about 20 years old. One foot was cut off and the left thigh broken. It is thought he fell under the wheels of a coal train which he attempted to board.

Car Collided with a Telegraph Pole.

READING, Pa., Sept. 21.—About midnight a trailer attached to a trolley car on the Reading and Southwestern Electric railroad left the track at the Kurtz House, several miles south of Reading, and was partially wrecked by striking a telegraph pole. The car was pretty well filled with people, and at least a dozen were more or less cut and bruised, principally by jumping off.

Will Hang for Murdering His Sister.

PERKIN, Ill., Sept. 21.—In the Tazewell county circuit court Albert Wallace was convicted of murder in the first degree and the death penalty ordered executed by the sheriff. The crime of which Wallace was found guilty was the killing of his sister.

His Fatal Debanch.

CHATTANOOGA'S PARADE.

The Battle of the City Fittingly Celebrated.

AN EMBLEM OF PEACE AND LOVE.

Union Veterans and Veterans of the Confederacy March Side by Side, a Company of the Latter Carrying the Stars and Stripes and an Olive Wreath.

CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 21.—One of the leading features of yesterday's events, one that earned perhaps more comment, more enthusiastic cheering, and which will make a lasting impression upon those who saw it, was a company of Confederate veterans attired in their tattered old uniforms of gray, carrying the Stars and Stripes. They formed a part of the big parade, and as they passed through the miles and miles of streets they were tendered an ovation that would that would have honored an emperor. Not one of these old war dogs was under 60, and yet they marched with a precision of step that would have done justice to West Point cadets. And one of them, the one next to the color bearer, carried an olive wreath, an emblem of peace and love.

The day's doings started off with the parade, and all Chattanooga and the tens of thousands of visitors turned out to see it. There were twenty-two carriages in line, containing the most distinguished of the citizens' guests remaining in the city. In the first carriage was Vice President A. E. Stevenson, and Speaker of the House of Representatives Charles F. Crisp. The second was occupied by Hon. J. W. McDox, of Georgia, and Hon. Benton McMillan, of Tennessee, and in successive carriages were seen men of no lesser rank.

Following the carriages came the military feature of the parade. These were regiments from Ohio, Indiana, Tennessee and Georgia, and from the United States regulars.

The formal exercises of the day were held in the big Barnum tent near the Government building, and were presided over by Vice President Stevenson. After music by the band, the Rev. Dr. N. T. Nichols, of St. Louis, offered prayer. The first address was by George W. Ochs, mayor of Chattanooga. He in turn was followed by Generals Bates and Grosvenor, Governors Morton of New York, Woodbury of Vermont, Matthews of Indiana and Turney of Tennessee, each made short talks.

Governor Turney caused something of a sensation in his speech. It came about in this way: Governor Woodbury said that during the war each side believed they were right, but now the southerners would have to teach their children the south was wrong.

Governor Turney took exception to this in his speech. "I believed I was right during the four years and nineteen days I served in the Confederate army," he said, "and at the end of that time I thought I was right. I still think I was right, and shall teach my children so. No one is more loyal to the Stars and Stripes than I, and no one is more loyal to the government, but I never can be convinced that the south was wrong."

This rather frank expression caused a great stir in the audience, and when the meeting adjourned was the topic of general conversation on all sides.

Barnum's tent was filled again last night. There was a gathering of the Army of Northern Virginia, and that portion of the Army of the Potomac which fought at Chickamauga. General E. C. Waltham, of Mississippi, presided. Colonel W. C. Oates, governor of Alabama, was the first speaker, and he was greeted with enthusiastic cheers. Colonel J. A. Williamson, of New York, and Colonel L. R. Steadman, of New York, also spoke, after which the meeting adjourned.

Yesterday the citizens of Chattanooga paid their compliments to General H. V. Boynton, who originated the idea of making a national park of the battlefield of Chickamauga. A number of citizens, headed by Captain H. D. Chambers, chairman of the executive committee of Chattanooga, and the Hon. A. S. Ochs, of the Chattanooga Times, went to the general's office in the government building and presented him with a silver dinner set containing 225 pieces. It was a complete surprise to the venerable gentleman, and he was so overcome that he could scarcely express his thanks.

Twelve German Soldiers Killed.

BERLIN, Sept. 21.—A railway train, with 1,300 soldiers on board, came into collision with a freight train standing at the station at Oderan, Saxony, demolishing a number of cars of both trains. Twelve soldiers were instantly killed, and sixty were injured. Many others were missing, and the debris is being searched for their bodies. The soldiers were returning from Stettin, where they had taken part in the military maneuvers. Five cars of the soldiers' train and two of the freight train were smashed into small pieces.

The Cuban Insurrection.

HAVANA, Sept. 21.—Dispatches received in this city report an attack upon a railway train by insurgents near Tunica. A detachment of civil guards protecting the train, repelled the attacking party and killed four of them. The village of Guina, in the province of Santa Clara, and in which were fifty houses, has been burned by insurgents.

Caught Between Belt and Grindstone.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 21.—William Witherside, 18 years of age, an employee in a flour mill at Nanticoke, was instantly killed. He was caught between a belt and a grindstone, and rapidly whirled about the machinery. When extricated he was found to be horribly mangled, nearly every bone in his body being crushed to pieces.

A Schooner Lost.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 21.—It is reported here that the schooner Panokee has gone down with all hands on board. The Panokee left Buffalo for Milwaukee with 304 tons of coal twenty-seven days ago. Since she left nothing has been heard of her. She carried a crew of about seven men.

THEY WANT NO BOSSISM.

FIVE THOUSAND REPUBLICANS RE-FUDIATE THE PLATT MACHINE.

AN IMPRESSIVE MEETING.

A Precursor of the Mighty Rising of Unshackled Conscience Republicans of the State That Will Overwhelm the Corrupt Machine Next November.

Special Albany Letter.

The most important political meeting held in the State prior to the State convention was the mass-meeting at which 5,000 unbossed Republicans of Albany county shed their collars and stood up to be counted against snap primaries and bossism within their party. It was the first organized demonstration that the better Republican sentiment of the State will not tolerate the continued rule of the present
despotic and corrupt Platt machine, and that unshackled Republicans are prepared to take the only logical and rational action that can now be resorted to to render their protest effective—that is, the heroic weapon to which independent American citizens may always appeal against one-man power in politics, the ballot.

Although the night set for this anti-Platt mass-meeting was an oppressively sultry one, Harmanus Bleecker Hall was crowded to the doors, and the enthusiasm of the crusade against Platt methods, unorganized as it had been,
was a reminder of presidential contests in its intensity. "Rid politics of bosses and it will not be necessary to turn out to meetings like this on a mid-summer night," said Wilbur F.
Wakeman, one of the speakers, and in so saying he struck the keynote of the entire meeting. None of the speakers minced matters in their allusions to the snap primaries, the bribery, the brutality that had won the caucuses for the Platt machine in so many districts this year.

PROTESTING DELEGATES CHOSEN

For various prudential reasons, it was deemed best to make the meeting a veiled rather than a direct protest against Platt personally. It was therefore called for the purpose of electing a delegation to go to Saratoga in the interests of the project of an enlarged State committee. The sentiment of the anti-machine Republicans in this city and county has been greatly aroused and enlisted in behalf of this project, and the new anti-Platt newspaper, the State, has dealt sledgehammer blows not only in favor of committee enlargement but against machine methods and machine domination. Robbed of the first right of a party man, to express his wish in the party primaries, by the action of the local Platt machine in calling snap primaries in July, the local opponents of the machine had nothing left to them but manly protest and the voicing of their righteous indignation at the polls next November. They believe that a State committee of 150, under which arrangement Albany county would have four instead of only one State committeeman, would strike a blow at the political autocracy of State committeemen Barnes. Yet if four State committeemen were selected this year by the delegates chosen as the result of Mr. Barnes' snap primaries it would simply mean that Barnes would have four votes instead of one in the State committee. And, looking at the matter more broadly, a State committee of 150 selected by assembly district delegations almost universally dominated by Platt, as is the case this year, would be as completely under his control as an assembly of 150 or a State convention of 800. It is impossible to believe that these intelligent and independent opponents of the machine
do not see that mere numerical considerations as to the size of the State committee do not reach the case.

THE LOGICAL OUTCOME.

Every cause must have its slogan and its rallying cry. The war of 1861 was fought nominally to preserve the union, and the liberating of the slaves was a war-measure, an incident, merely.
Yet that was the real underlying purpose of the war, and without it the war would have been worse than wasted. The war of the anti-machine, conscience Republicans, begun on the minor issue of State committee enlargement, will never be ended until it has fought and won the battle for liberty of the individual, for freedom from bossism of any sort, and to strike the machine shackles from men's con-sciences.

Take Albany county as an illustration. Last year, when the war against Platt was but a parlor contest compared to the feeling this year, State Committeeman Barnes had a terrific fight to win, and did in fact carry but half the delegates and held over failing the election of his successor. This year he had all the delegates—but how?
By snapping the primaries and forestalling the possibility of a contest and a fair, free expression of the will of the rank and file of the party. And what has been done in Albany has been duplicated in nearly every county of the State where a result adverse to the machine was feared. In many cases even snap primaries could not be carried by the machine without resort to the stealing of ballot boxes, the bribery of delegates and the familiar "bruiser" methods of intimidating and assaulting reputable Republican voters.

HOW PLATT CAN BE OVER-THROWN.

"But can Platt be overthrown?" ask some. Easily. His support is composed of mercenaries and Hessians.
Deprived of the patronage of the State officers and the legislature, and the campaign fund that comes from control of the legislature, his lieutenants
by the hundreds will at once drop away from him. Then the better element of the Republican party can control and shape its organization into the more credible paths it fondly desires.
The day for mere protests and declarations has gone by. Determined men see that the Platt machine must be assailed at the polls and driven from its citadel. And strong, determined, conscientious Republicans in Albany will not be found wanting when their brethren sound the advance to battle next November. Albany county will head the anti-machine column with an old-time Democratic majority.

JUSTICE DEMANDED

An Indignant Protest Against a Chautauqua Candidate.

In an open letter to the press H. E.
Donstedt, a well-known and prominent Chautauqua county Republican, indignantly protests against the nomination of ex-Assemblyman Jerome Babcock, Plattite and Free Silverite, for the assembly in the first Chautauqua district. "A few renegade Republicans, or former pretended Republicans," says Mr. Donstedt, "manipulated one or more caucuses, and have succeeded by corrupt and what is believed can be proved to be illegal methods in disfranchising the Republicans of this district."

The question is, what are honest Republicans to do in this and similar cases of which there are only too many all over the State. "I believe," says Mr.
Donstedt, answering this natural question, "I speak the sentiment of the majority of the clean voters of all parties in this district, that it is time to call a halt. The people demand to be heard, and will be; if not now they will at the polls next November. The leading men of the party are ready to declare their principles in no uncertain tones. Chautauqua county Republicans will not be controlled by any machine or set who do not hold the announced principles of the party on all the prominent questions of the day, and who are not honest, upright, fearless men."

DISGRACEFUL SCENES.

The Republican Primaries in New York
Described.

A New York dispatch said of the recent Republican caucuses in that city Platt's machine managed to elect about 90 of the total of 135 delegates credited to this county.

The conventions in many instances were disgraceful riots. The police force was on duty. In some districts the entire reserve had to be ordered out.
It was like old times when Johnny O'Brien ran things, and ambulances waited around the corner from the convention hall for the wounded to be carried out.

Another case was the twenty-fifth district. The Platt and Hedges merchants fought in the Chimney Corner hall from 9 o'clock in the evening until 8 o'clock in the morning when 20 reserve policemen dissolved the convention and drove the warriors out.

A Strong Candidate.

"Always a staunch Democrat, Judge Day has refrained from mixing in any of the contests which have at times caused trouble in the party," says the Auburn Bulletin, (Ind.), speaking of the Democratic senatorial nominee in the Cayuga-Seneca district, "and he will certainly poll the full strength of his party. In addition to that he will undoubtedly have the support of many Republicans, both in Cayuga and Seneca counties who admire the man and who have no particular love for his opponent because of his activity in minor contests. Assemblyman Wilcox has indeed a foe man worthy of his steel in the man whom the Democrats have placed in nomination." All who know Judge Day agree that this is undoubtedly rather overrating his popularity and claim, and that he is far from unlikely to give his opponent a big surprise party when the votes are counted, despite the numerical odds against him.

Senator Proctor's Purchase.

Redfield Proctor of Vermont is both a business man and a Republican United States Senator. It must have been Redfield Proctor, business man, that has just purchased the controlling interest in the Sheldon marble quarries at West Rutland and is about to resume operations with a large force of men, because Redfield Proctor, Republican United States Senator, would be selling instead of buying manufactories under a Democratic tariff, of course.

We should like to see where Redfield Proctor, Republican United States Senator, gets Redfield Proctor, business man, one side and cuts him a piece of his mind for stopping calamity-bowling and getting in him with prosperity.
What does he want to run the party?

The Full Trade in Corker.

"The full trade is now at its height,
and it is the largest that merchants have seen since 1901. It started in earlier than usual, and merchants have been as busy as they could be for the past thirty days with a steady increase in their sales."

"The important feature is that goods have been sold over a larger territory than in any former year."

From some Democratic paper, no doubt?

Oh, no; that is quoted from the Chicago Inter-Ocean, one of the strongest Republican papers in the United States.

And yet the Republican State convention of New York State has declared for more tariff agitation and business disturbance! Do the people want it?

Tariff Trifles.

The Ohio Republicans must not expect that the people are going to rid business all the way down the back for their benefit.—Buffalo Commercial (Rep.)

The constantly increasing demand for iron throughout the country is a sure sign of a business boom.—New York Journal.

If the Republicans are wise they will adopt as the tariff plank for their national platform, "Let well enough alone."—Boston Globe.

Another Blow for McKinley

The business of Messrs. Clark and Dennett, who started the Continental Knitting Mill at Cohoes three years ago, has so far exceeded their expectations that they have been obliged to purchase an extensive plot of ground for the erection of a new mill.

The ground purchased covers an entire block, and its measurements are 135x100x215 feet. In their present mill the proprietors give employment to 100 hands and operate eight sets.

McKinley Repudiated.

Protection will remain an indispensable article of the Republican creed, but the party has no more idea of reviving the McKinley act as a whole than it has of resurrecting the Iodo.—New York Commercial Advertiser (Rep.)

DRAINING THE BASHAS KILL SWAMP.

If It Cannot Be Done by Voluntary Subscriptions the Drainage Act Will Be Invoked.

A movement is on foot to drain the Bashas Kill swamp between Haven and Westbrookville. The preliminary papers are to be drawn by J. V.
M., to-day, and an effort will be made to raise the necessary funds, about $2,000, by subscription. If this cannot be done proceedings will be instituted under the drainage act, and the cost of the work will be assessed on the property benefited.

The flooding of the swamp is caused by a bar in the Kill at West-brookville, where the Pine Kill empties into it, which dams back the water. This bar has been removed several times, but forms again in a few years.

Some fifteen years ago a survey of the flooded district was made by Charles Barnum, George Russell, J.
V. M., Eli Bennett and Hugh Holmes.
A map of the flooded district, made at that time, is now on file in the Sullivan county clerk's office. The total area affected is about 2,000 acres, and about 1,000 acres are now under water. After the swamp was last drained parts of the flooded district were cultivated as gardens, and the land was the most productive tract to be found in the county.

An Old Man Sent to Jail.

Alex Graham, nearly eighty years old, was convicted in Walton, Monday, of feeding potatoes poisoned with Paris green to the hens of a neighbor, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 or spend fifty days in jail.
He was taken to Delhi jail, Tuesday, to serve out his sentence. Graham was never arrested before in his life and has always borne a good reputation.

A Newburgh Man Assigns.

seedsman and florist of Newburgh,
has made an assignment to Seward U. Round. Among the heaviest creditors is Mr. Cornish's mother and seed dealers in other cities. Only employees are preferred.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The Democratic electors of the State of New York are requested to unite in sending three delegates to a State Convention, to be held at Syracuse, on the day Sept. 24th, 1895, at 12 o'clock noon. The place of nomination candidates to be voted on at the ensuing general election, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

JUDICIAL CONVENTION.

Pursuant to the resolution adopted at the Democratic Judicial Convention of 1894, for the second Judicial Department, authorizing and directing the chairman of that convention to name the time and place for the holding of the next Democratic Judicial Convention, for the second Judicial Department, the chairman do hereby designate the County Court House, in the city of Brooklyn, as the place, and October 3d, 1895, at 12 o'clock noon, as the time for that convention to meet for the selection of three candidates for Supreme Court Justice in the second Judicial Department.

ROBERT STUBBS, Chairman Democratic Judicial Convention 1894.
Attest: JOSEPH FITCH, Secretary Democratic Judicial Convention 1894.
Dated Brooklyn, Sept. 13th, 1895.

DEMOCRATIC SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

The Democratic electors of the Twenty-third Senatorial District are hereby requested to send forty-eight (48) delegates to represent them in the Senatorial Convention, to be held at the Casino, in the city of Middletown, on WEDNESDAY OCT. 2d, 1895, at 12 o'clock noon. The said delegates to be apportioned as follows: Rockland county, sixteen (16) delegates; Orange county, thirty-two (32) delegates; to be apportioned to the several towns and wards, as follows: Each town and ward to elect one delegate, with the exception of the town of Deerpark, which is requested to send three delegates.

TOWN OF WAWAYANDI.

The Democratic electors of the town of Wawayandi are requested to unite in sending three delegates to a Town Convention, to be held at the Casino, in the city of Middletown, on WEDNESDAY OCT. 2d, 1895, at 12 o'clock noon. The said delegates to be apportioned as follows: Each town and ward to elect one delegate, with the exception of the town of Deerpark, which is requested to send three delegates.

The Democrats of the First Assembly District of this county, yesterday, elected Arthur A. McLean and Francis A. Willard, of Newburgh, and Samuel D. Robinson, of Crawford, delegates to the State convention. Hon. Grant B. Taylor was chosen delegate to the Judiciary convention.

Delaware county Democrats have presented to the consideration of the Senatorial district, (Delaware, Orange and Sullivan counties) ex-Assemblyman Henry Davis, a popular and able man. They have made the following nominations for county officers: For County Judge, Robert T. Johnson, of Franklin; for District Attorney, Frank A. Taylor; for Member of Assembly, John W. McArthur, of Kortright.

The Livingston Mayor Erskin (independent), writing of the political situation in Sullivan county, says Democrats "think their chances are brighter on account of the open war declared between rival Republican factions. The Beecher and Couch men were downed in the conventions, their delegates cast aside and they have their knives whetted to a razor edge."

Dr. Parkhurst announced, yesterday, that he proposed to stump the State and consolidate all the reform sentiment into a mighty power. He proposes to work through the churches and expects to accomplish a great deal to this way. A determined effort is to be made to defeat Le-won, whom Dr. Parkhurst regards as reform's worst enemy. We shall watch with a great deal of interest the Reverend Doctor's fight against "the little man from Nyack" for it will determine to what extent an appeal to the moral and religious sense of the Republicans of Orange and Rockland counties will prevail against an unworthy candidate.

THE REPUBLICAN EMBLEM.

The Republican official emblem is an eagle, a ballot box and a pen. The purpose of the pen is a mystery. The eagle is to scream and the ballot box is to be stuffed, but what is the pen for? Now, if it were a blue pencil it would be perfectly appropriate.

The City Reservoirs.
The measurements of the water in the reservoirs, today, are as follows: Highland Lake, nine feet, six inches; Monbagen Lake, fifteen feet, four inches.

To Swear in Election Officers.
Inspectors and clerks of election will be sworn in by the Mayor, at the Corporation Room, between 4 and 5:30 o'clock this evening, and 7 and 8:30 o'clock this evening.

FELL FROM A TRAIN.

James Whitmore, of Chester, seriously and perhaps fatally injured in this city.

James Whitmore, of Chester, was found, at four o'clock, this morning, lying beside the Erie tracks, near Houston avenue. He complained of pains about his back, and the ambulance was summoned and the man taken to Thrall Hospital. Dr. Mills, who examined him, found that the man was suffering from a fracture of the spine and of the pelvis, and was also injured internally.

The man said he fell from the "Wild West" train, which left this city about 1:30 a. m. He had intended to ride to his home at Chester.

There is very little hope of the man's recovery.

ANOTHER SULLIVAN COUNTY MURDER

GEO. B. ADAMS & CO.

A Debtor, Angered at the Removal of His Goods, Shoots His Creditor.

Jacob Brecker, of Glen Spey, Sullivan county, owed Frank Densor, a neighbor, $40, which was secured by chattel mortgage. The debt was not paid and, yesterday morning, Densor began to remove the goods covered by the mortgage.

Brecker was very angry and accused Densor of taking more than enough goods to satisfy the debt, and going into the house procured a 32-calibre revolver, which he pointed at Densor.

"Are you going to snoot me?" asked Densor.

"I will show you what I will do with a revolver," was the reply.

Densor begged him not to shoot, but as he started back from the tail end of his wagon, which contained the goods which had been seized, Brecker fired when ten feet away, the ball taking effect in the chest of Densor.

The wounded man ran toward the highway, calling loudly for help. Then Brecker fired again, the ball penetrating the right hip, and Densor fell to the ground. The wounded man was taken to his home, and Dr. Swartwout was summoned from Port Jervis. He pronounced the wounds fatal. Densor made an ante-mortem statement before Justice Christopher Hollenbeck, which agrees substantially with the foregoing.

Densor is reported to have died, last evening. Brecker has been arrested. Densor was a German, aged about thirty-five years, and leaves a wife and three children. He was a laborer, frugal and industrious.

WHOLESALE MILK DEALERS ORGANIZE

Any Adulterating Is Done It Will Not Be By Farmers.

At a meeting of wholesale milk dealers, held at the law office of Alfred Ely, in New York, yesterday, a dealers' protective association was organized with the following officers: President, T. A. Mills; Vice-President, J. C. Ryder; Treasurer, Geo. Slaughter; Secretary, George T. Walker. Members pledge themselves to receive no milk from a producer found guilty of watering or adulterating his milk and all milk sold by members is to be systematically inspected so that responsibility for subsequent adulterations may be easily placed by the Health Board's inspectors.

HAULING WATER TO MIX MORTAR.

Wells on Richmond Hill All Dry—A Good Time to Go Deeper.

The wells on Richmond Hill have "gone dry" and the masons erecting buildings in that locality are compelled to haul water to mix mortar, as there is no city water yet in that section. The wells were dug during a wet season when water in plenty was obtained at about 12 feet, and now would be a good time to go deeper and build tile wells.

LESSON OF THE LILIES.

Dear lilies of the field, they grew in sweet profusion to the road. Where pass'd the Sunday people through To worship in their church above.

"They are so dainty waiting here?" "The lilies said in mild complaint— "There is no shade protecting them. In heat and dust we often faint."

"Tears came of our Lord to make His flower children suffer?" Then answer'd one, "For his dear sake It might be here we ought to grow."

They pressed that way a maiden fair, In spotless white for church arrayed. She saw the lilies blooming there. "I'll gather them to wear," she said.

That morn a youthful speaker stood To break the bread and speak the prayer. Then waited in a thoughtful mood To find his inspiration there.

When soft to her accustomed place The little maiden gently trod, The preacher bowed his anxious face. And in his heart he prayed, "Thank God!"

Here was his text, his sermon, too, "The lilies of the field," he spoke In words of love, with meaning new. The bread of life to them he broke.

And in the little maiden's eyes He saw delight and sweet content, Then and the lilies, growing wise, "Our Lord this very lesson meant."

—Mrs. M. L. Payne in Detroit Free Press.

A LOCK OF HAIR.

The city of Megara lay smiling in the summer sun. Its marble palaces, its tall columns, its towers and turrets were gay with flowing plume and flag, for it was a feast day. The sun had been up only an hour, but already the streets were swarming with children, who had risen early to gather flowers to decorate the temples. Soft laughter rose on the fragrant air, and looks of trouble were for the time cast aside.

Could one conceive of a more peaceful and contented people? Yet sincere as their happiness was now, it was only as a ray of broken light streaming through a rift in the dark clouds.

For Megara was besieged and the camp of the enemy lay just outside the walls of the city. A truce had been declared that the people might celebrate their holy rites to the gods.

And so, grateful for the lull in the strife which for six months had borne heavily upon them, the people threw care to the winds and put all their hearts and souls into the pure pleasure of this one blessed day. They heeded not that this reprieve was but the false hope sent by a cruel fate and that the darkest hour of their trial was coming swiftly on silent wings.

The people now passed in throngs, all gayly attired in their holiday clothes, which for months had been put aside. It was time for the ceremony of sacrifice, and the young maidens, dressed in spotless white, with white flowers entwined in their locks and trailing over their flowing robes, looked like seraphs, with their young faces all aglow with holy enthusiasm.

On a smooth, rolling plain, covered with its natural carpet of green and dotted with flowers which seemed like a sprinkling of sunbeams, the altar had been erected. The procession formed slowly, the white-robed maidens coming first, chanting and swaying slightly to an easy dancing step. Then followed the youths of the kingdom, their boyish voices taking up the strain of the maidens, swelling it louder and rolling it over the long ranks.

When these had formed a circle about the altar, a long avenue was left clear, and then the glory of the procession came into view. Six tiny maidens, clad in rainbow hue, held in their hands masses of flowers intertwined about ribbons and leading by them a snow-white bull. Its horns were like ivory and shone in the sunlight. No flower or ornament was needed to add a charm to the perfect animal.

Walking beside it, her arms thrown carelessly around its neck, was the pride of the kingdom, Seylla, the king's daughter. She was tall and slight and as graceful as a reed. Her dark hair hung about her in lustrous coils and swept over the back of the bull. Her robe was of cloth of gold, and deep purple amethysts fastened its folds and glistened from her black hair. Other ornaments she had none.

Closely following her was Nisus, the king, surrounded by his guards. He, like his daughter, was tall and dark, with the same kind of hair, except that one lock, falling over his shoulder, shone purple, like the light from her amethysts.

No wonder the daughter loved the purple robe, even as Nisus treasured the purple lock, for it reflected the light from that lock on which depended the safety of the country.

The children led the bull to the altar. Seylla stood beside it, till the king approached with the gleaming knife. Then, with a low cry, she threw her arms about the creature's neck and pressed a kiss on its white face. But her grief did not interrupt the ceremony, and the sacrifice was made.

When Seylla reached home, she went up into the high tower of the palace, from which she could look down over the whole city and beyond it. Outside the walls she saw, as she had seen for the last six months, the camp of King Minos of Crete, and beyond the wide plain the ocean stretching out, out, to liberty. For though she was a princess, Seylla felt like a bird in a golden cage. As she looked down over the camp and watched the tents a figure issued from one of them. During the whole of the siege she had watched the enemy from the tower, and had learned to distinguish the officers by name. And he who but now emerged from his tent was no other than King Minos himself.

A KNIFE

In the hand of a Surgeon gives you a feeling of horror and dread. There is no longer necessary for its use in many diseases formerly regarded as incurable without cutting.

The Triumph of Conservative Surgery

It is well illustrated by the fact that RUPTURE of the testis, is now radically cured without the knife and without pain. Clumsy, chafing trusses, can be thrown away! They never cure but often induce inflammation, strangulation and death.

TUMORS, many others, are now removed without the peril of cutting operations. However, large, FISTULA, and other diseases of the lower bowel, are permanently cured without pain or resort to the knife.

STONE in the Bladder, no matter how large, and perfectly removed without cutting. STRICTURE of Urinary Passage is also removed without cutting in hundreds of cases. $25. Book of 1000 pages, references and particulars, sent free (in stamps) to World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

MOTHERS

and those soon to become mothers, should know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription robs childbirth of its tortures, terrors, and dangers to both mother and child, by aiding nature in preparing the system for parturition. Thereby "labor" and the period of confinement are greatly shortened. It also promotes the secretion of an abundance of nourishment for the child.

Mrs. DONA A. GUTHRIE, of Oakley, Oregon Co., Tenn., writes: "When I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, I was not able to stand on my feet without suffering almost death. Now I do all my housework, washing, cooking, sewing and everything for my family of eight. I am stouter now than I have been in six years. Your 'Favorite Prescription' is the best to take before confinement, or at least in connection with it. I never suffered so little with any of my children as I did with my last."

YEARS OF INTENSE PAIN.

Dr. J. H. Watts, druggist and physician, Humboldt, Neb., who suffered with heart disease for four years, trying every remedy and all treatments known to himself and fellow-practitioners; believes that heart disease is curable. He writes:

"I wish to tell what your valuable medicine has done for me. For four years I had heart disease of the very worst kind. Several physicians I consulted, said it was Rheumatism of the Heart.

It was almost unendurable; with shortness of breath, palpitations, severe pains, unable to sleep, especially on the left side. No pen can describe my sufferings, particularly during the last months of those four weary years. I finally tried

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and was surprised at the result. It put new life into me and made a new man of me. I have not had a symptom of trouble since and I am satisfied your medicine has cured me for I have now enjoyed, since taking it

Three Years of Splendid Health.

I might add that I am a druggist and have sold and recommended your Heart Cure, for I know what it has done for me and only wish I could state more clearly my suffering then and the good health I now enjoy. Your Nerve and other remedies also give excellent satisfaction." J. H. WATTS.

Humboldt, Neb., May 9, '04.

Dr. Miles Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at $1.00 bottles for $5, or it will be sent prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

CHAS. J. GIERING,

Jeweler and Optician, No. 7 North Street.

he had all the charms that a knight could wish to win a fair lady's heart.

And Seylla looked till he passed from her view, as she had done every time she had seen him.

Then wild thoughts coursed through her excited brain. How cruel a war was, yet she blessed this war that brought Minos to her sight. But how terrible if he should be killed. Oh, if only peace might be had, she would have offered herself as a hostage.

Then came the wild thought of delivering the city up. She could easily do it, but one obstacle was in her way. The fates had decreed that so long as the purple lock remained on her father's head the city should stand. It needed but that she should remove it and all would be well, for surely Minos would be grateful to her and she would be happy.

And then came the thought of that father's shame and degradation, but only for a moment, as one thought after another coursed through her mind. She felt that she could pass through fire and water to save Minos, yet that was not needed. Another woman would dare as much, and could any one dare more than she?

Then the victory was won; but not on the side of duty. And only then, when she had fully determined on her plan did she find peace or rest.

That night she arrayed herself in her richest robes. Never had she looked more beautiful. The graces themselves might have envied her. And Nisus smiled a welcome to his daughter as she entered the banquet hall. All traces of her grief at the sacrifice had disappeared, and the king was glad.

Seylla suffered all his attention and endearments, but hurried to her apartments as soon as she could. She feared lest her resolution might weaken and so her happiness be forever lost.

How many of us have stood in a like position, with all the seasons for and against our actions crushing us down, our life and death in the balance, which a breath could give or take!

It was after the midnight watch had been called and the palace was sunk in slumber that a figure enveloped in a dark cloak glided through the wide corridor to the king's apartments. At the door a challenge rung out, but a moment later the sentinel knelt and the princess passed in to her father.

Nisus slept, and the daughter slowly approached his couch. How noble he looked, but the girl stole her heart against him!

A moment later the dark figure fled down the corridors as it had come, but a gleam of triumph shone from the eyes and love and victory struggled for mastery in the countenance. And the king slept on, but the purple lock had left his head forever!

So Seylla went through the dark city and left it behind her as she passed the wall through a secret gate. Swiftly she entered the camp of the enemy and demanded to see King Minos.

When the king beheld her, he thought so lovely a woman had never before walked the earth, but when holding out the purple lock she said that she gave up her city, her father, herself, he spurned her from him.

"Shall Crete," he cried, "where Jove himself was cradled, be polluted by this monster? Infamous woman, begone and may neither land nor sea afford thee a resting place!"

"Alas!" cried Seylla. "For thee have I given up everything! Aye, I am deservng of death, but thy hand should not be the one to deal the blow!"

But Minos would have nothing to do with her, and the next morning, giving orders that equitable terms should be allowed to the vanquished city, he sailed away with his fleet.

As the ships were departing Seylla jumped into the sea, and grasping the rudder of the vessel that conveyed Minos was carried along with it till an eagle, into which her father had been changed, darted down and pecked at her with its beak and claws. Seylla cried for mercy, and some pitying deity changed her into a bird.

And to this day the eagle pounces upon the gull, ever seeking vengeance for the old crime.—Virginia Horton in Philadelphia Times.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsia and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with Joraleff. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medicine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the greatest medicine in the world." MORE THAN HE COULD BEAR.
After a Discussion About a Cashier and a Board Mr. Rising Departs.
"I don't believe it," said Mr. Rising energetically as he sank down in an armchair while the door slammed behind him. "Believe what?" asked Mrs. Rising.
"Why, that our cashier has uttered false notes," replied Mr. Rising.
"Who said he had, John?" inquired Mrs. Rising.
"Bill Jones was hinting around about fly-catchers and the way some curious notes were flying round," returned Mr. Rising gloomily.
"I shouldn't care much what Bill Jones said," observed Mrs. Rising.
"He must have heard something, Emily," Mr. Rising continued.
"Maybe the notes were a mistake, anyhow, John," said Mrs. Rising cheerfully.
"Men don't make mistakes of that kind, Emily," said Mr. Rising dejectedly.
"Does the cashier sing much, John?" was Mrs. Rising's next interrogatory.
"He'll sing low for awhile now, Mrs. Rising," Mr. Rising growled.
"Well, I never knew Bill Jones had much of an ear for music, anyway, John," remarked Mrs. Rising hopefully.
"What in the name of sense has that to do with it, Emily?"
"Why, to tell that the notes were uttered wrong, John," said Mrs. Rising, and then added half apologetically, "but perhaps he carried a tuning fork."
"Or possibly a tuning fork, or a table spoon, Emily," said Mr. Rising, with bitter but unappreciated sarcasm.
"Wake me up, Emily, in five minutes. I've got to go down to a board meeting to-night," said Mr. Rising, throwing himself on the lounge.
Mrs. Rising obediently roused her husband at the moment indicated and asked, "Why is it called a board meeting, John?"
"Because the directors and officers sit on the board, Emily," returned Mr. Rising.
"That's funny!" observed Mrs. Rising. "Is it hard, John?"
"Well, I've seen harder things, Emily," replied Mr. Rising.
"How many men sit with you, John?" was Mrs. Rising's next query.
"About a dozen," carelessly answered Mr. Rising.
"Are you crowded, John?"
"We occasionally crowd a fellow out," replied Mr. Rising.
"Is it narrow or wide, John?" Mrs. Rising pursued the matter with growing interest.
"Is what narrow or wide, Emily?" Mr. Rising questioned in turn.
"The board you sit on," in all unconsciousness.
"Emily," said Mr. Rising as he stood by the door with his hat firmly on his head. "Emily, have biscuit for breakfast and don't have them half baked. There are some things a man cannot bear." And Mr. Rising shut the door behind him.
"I wonder," said Mrs. Rising to herself. "If the biscuit weren't right this morning, I thought they were due to a turn. Men are queer."—Chicago Times-Herald.

OVER THE SHAWANGUNKS.

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS IN SULLIVAN COUNTY ARE DOING.

All the News from All Parts of the County—Many Matters of Interest Condensed from our Sullivan Exchanges and Contributed by Wide-Awake Correspondents.

—Much building is going on in Liberty, at present, and carpenters, masons and painters are all busy.

—The suit of Lane, against the town of Hancock, in which a non-suit was ordered at the last circuit, is to be appealed. The case has already been to the Court of Appeals.

—The Italians employed on the Monticello water works struck, Monday, because seventy cents was deducted from each man's wages in payment for his shovel. The difficulty was quickly adjusted.

—The appeal of George Nelson, convicted, in June, of seduction under promise of marriage, was argued at the General Term of the Supreme Court, in Saratoga, this week, by Hon. T. A. Niven, for Nelson, and Geo. McLaughlin for the people.

—While descending the steps in front of the residence of Mrs. Sarah Flisk, in Liberty, Mrs. Morton, mother of C. B. Morton, fell and broke two bones in her hand and dislocated her collar bone. She is over eighty years old, but is getting along as well as can be expected.

—Monticello's Water Commissioners ask for $7,000 additional with which to complete and extend the water works. The necessity of going to Pleasant Lake for a supply, of buying right of way and of laying a mile and a half more of pipe caused the original appropriation to be insufficient.

—An extraordinary Oyer and Terminer may be held in Monticello, next winter, for the trial of Geo. J. Bethauer and James McCombe, who were indicted for murder by the last Grand Jury. Should an additional Oyer and Terminer not be ordered, the trials cannot take place before the regular term in May next.

—The Charles Baxford farm, at Hurleyville, was sold under mortgage foreclosure at the office of Geo. H. Carpenter in Liberty, last Monday. Garrett LeRoy bought the farm and Chas. J. Smith the house. He afterwards purchased the farm of Mr. LeRoy. Both properties sold for $2,250.

—Work on the Loomis Memorial Sanitarium at Liberty is progressing rapidly. The building is nearly enclosed and will be ready for occupancy by March 1st next. Three cottages are to be erected on the grounds, at a cost of from $1,200 to $1,500 each.

—For the past five weeks, three carloads of cattle a week, have been shipped from Liberty. Most of them have been new milkers, for which $25 to $30 a head was paid. Cows that have been milked during the summer have been sold at from $10 to $12 each. Hay delivered in Liberty is worth from $16 to $18.

DON'T LIKE REPUBLICAN EDITORS.

The Big Buffalo in the Wild West show makes a dash for Editor Young.

The big buffalo in the Wild West show evidently did not like the looks of Editor Young, of the Port Jervis Union. The latter and a Gazette man were leaning against the board enclosure in which the buffaloes were confined in that village during the show.

All were lying down, but the big fellow slowly arose and after getting his bearings made a dash for that portion of the fence against which Mr. Young was leaning and struck it with such force that the editor was knocked down and the fence nearly so.

Real Estate Notes.

—The farm known as the Green farm, in the town of Oberon, on the Sugar Loaf road, was sold at foreclosure, Monday, by Hon. R. C. Coleman, referee. It was purchased by Howard Green, Jr., for $1,600. The property contains about eighty-three acres.

Also in Middletown.

From the Monticello Watchman.
Prof. H. H. Whittier, of band fame, is press agent for Bob Huntington's circus. There are several parties in Monticello anxious to see the professor.

When a person begins to grow thin there is something wrong. The waste is greater than the supply and it is only a question of time when the end must come.

In nine cases out of ten the trouble is with the digestive organs. If you can restore them to a healthy condition you will stop the waste, put on new flesh and cause them to feel better in every way. The food they eat will be digested and appropriated to the needs of the system, and a normal appetite will appear.

Consumption frequently follows a wasting of bodily tissue because nearly all consumptives have indigestion. The Shaker Digestive Cordial will restore the stomach to a healthy condition in a vast majority of cases. Get one of their books from your druggist and learn about this new and valuable remedy.

When the children need castor oil, give them Laxol—it is palatable.

A PREMIUM FOR WIDE TIRES.

A Pennsylvania Law That New York Should Imitate—A Practical Illustration.

The Pennsylvania lawmakers did a sensible thing in enacting a law, last winter, for the encouragement of the use of wide tired wagon wheels. The act provides that all persons using wheels with tires not less than four inches wide shall be credited by the supervisors of their township with one-fourth of the road tax levied and assessed against them, providing that the amount so allowed shall not exceed five days' labor.

Such a law as the above, but more generous in its exemptions from taxation, ought to be enacted in this State. General use of tires four inches wide, on all heavy vehicles, would go far to solve the problem of good roads in the country and good streets in the town.

A practical illustration of the good effects resulting from the use of wide tires was afforded in this city, yesterday, by the wagons used by the Wild West show. These wagons were all wide-tired and though some of them were so heavily loaded that six horses were necessary to draw them, the streets over which they passed instead of being cut up and rutted were packed down and left in better condition than before the big show came to town.

SAYS THEY ARE SANE.

A Paroled Patient Seeking to Secure the Discharge of Three State Hospital Patients.

Lawyer William H. Mundy, of New York, has obtained three writs of habeas corpus for three inmates of the State Hospital, in this city. They are Frank North who has been in the institution for twelve years, Joseph O. Clark, two years and William H. Belden two years. All the patients declare that they are now sane and should be discharged.

The writs were granted by Justice Beekman, and were directed to Dr. Selden H. Talcott and made returnable in Brooklyn.

Mundy, the attorney for the petitioners, was at one time a patient at the hospital and is now out on parole.

WANNEMAKER'S ORCHESTRA.

Again Established for Business in New York City.

Wannemaker's Orchestra, which for many years furnished music for the Bachelors' hops in this city, after a tour of several years abroad has again located in New York city, with headquarters at F. Ruppert's, at Ninety-first street and Third avenue.

Mr. F. Wannemaker, the leader of the orchestra, was in town, yesterday, shaking hands with friends.

There is no better orchestra in the country than Wannemaker's and his Middletown admirers will be pleased to know where to find him.

"GIRL WANTED."

A Very Laughsome Play at the Casino Next Friday Evening.

"Girl Wanted," with Frank Bush in the leading role, is said to be one of the liveliest and funniest entertainments that ever figured under the name of farce-comedy. It is soon due in this city. The piece was written by E. N. Stephens and is produced by Managers Davis & Keogh. The scenes are in and on a New York flat building, and Frank Bush appears as a man who impersonates different people.

Base Ball Notes.

—The Bullfrogs play the return game at Slate Hill, Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 24th.

—Madison put up another good game at second base for Philadelphia, yesterday, and bids fair to become a fixture on the team. He made five hits, one a two-bagger, had four put outs, three assists and one error, stole a base and assisted in a double play.

To Enter Albany Law School.

Mr. William J. Burke, a student in the law office of George H. Decker, Esq., will go to Albany on Monday to complete his studies in the Albany Law School.

Mr. Burke is intelligent and industrious, possesses many sterling qualities and gives promise of a successful career in his chosen profession.

Two Show Day Drunks.

Notwithstanding the great number of plainly visible drunks on the street, yesterday afternoon and evening, only two became so obstreperous as to require police attention. They were reprimanded and discharged.

Did You Ever Think.

That you cannot be well unless you have pure, rich blood? If you are weak, tired, languid and all run down, it is because your blood is impoverished and lacks vitality. These troubles may be overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla because Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure, rich blood. It is, in truth the great blood purifier.

HOOD'S PILLS cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion.

Accidents will happen. Be provided with Page's Ointment Salve. It will cure a burn, scald, cut or bruise and have pain and Doctors' bills.

VICTIMS OF PICKPOCKETS.

Two Men Robbed While on Cars on Their Way to the "Wild West."

Mr. John Bagley, of near Eight-and-a-Half Station, reported to the police, this morning, the loss of his pocketbook, containing $35 and three notes, one of $53, one of $22 and one of $25 50.

He carried the wallet in his left trousers pocket, and he thinks it was "lifted" while he was riding on the steps of an electric car from Franklin Square to the snow grounds. Of course there is no clue to the pickpocket.

Mr. Andrew J. Bell, a well known resident of the North End, started for the afternoon show on an electric car, and when near the Second Presbyterian Church discovered that he had been robbed. Just a moment before a man who sat beside him, and of whom he was suspicious, alighted from the car.

Very fortunately the wallet contained only $3, but it was all the money he had with him and he had not yet purchased his ticket, and had to wait on the grounds until he met a friend whom he felt like asking for a dollar.

A BIG BLACK SNAKE KILLED.

It Was Crossing the Railroad Track on Academy Avenue When It Was Despatched.

A large black snake nearly six feet in length was killed, this morning, by "Barber Jack," an electric road employee, while it was crossing the railroad track on Academy avenue, between Benton avenue and Grant street.

The first blow was aimed at the snake's head, but the reptile darted forward so swiftly that the blow struck about in the middle of the back. When it felt the blow it writhed and twisted its tail about the stick, but a few more blows quickly despatched it. "Barber Jack" brought the reptile up town and exhibited it, where it attracted no little attention.

SUCCESS OF ERIE REORGANIZATION

Practically All the Stock Deposited and the Assessments Paid.

It was a great day for old Erie, yesterday. Mr. Coster, of J. P. Morgan & Co., and of the Erie Reorganization Committee, said: "This was the final day for depositing Erie preferred and common stock and paying the first installment of assessments. You may say that practically all the stock, both common and preferred, has been deposited and the assessments paid. The reorganization is a thorough success, with nothing to detract from its completeness."

The installments required were one-third of the $18 on common and $12 on preferred stock. The total common stock is about 770,000 shares.

THE COUNTY FAIR.
